Daniel J. Wolff Resigns As Recreation Board Director; Three Others Recommended

The Board of Directors of the Gettysburg Recreation Association lost another of its older members Wednesday night. Daniel J. Wolff, a member recommended by the Gettysburg School Board, of which he is a member, tendered his resignation at a meeting of the Recreation Board held in the council chambers at the fire engine house. The resignation, effective immediately, was accepted with regret.

The resignation brought to seven the number of directors who have "quit" the board this summer. Three directors, whose terms expired with the annual meeting, John D. Teeter, Mrs. Henrietta Blocher and Richard S. Codori, declined renomination. Glenn L. Bream tendered his resignation at the last meeting of the board, and Richard A. Brown, whose term expires September 1, announced that he will not accept another term. Mrs. Sydney J. Poppay, also a school director, sent her resignation to the school board.

3 Are Recommended
The five remaining directors, three of whom were elected at the annual meeting to replace Directors Teeter, Blocher and Codori, voted at Wednesday night's meeting to recommend the following names to Burgess William G. Weaver for transmission to the Borough Council and appointments to the "Rec" Board:

Mahlon P. Hartzell, to succeed Richard A. Brown.
E. Donald Scott, to succeed Glenn L. Bream, whose term expires in 1954.

Robert Deardorff to replace Daniel J. Wolff, whose term expires in 1955. No recommendation was made in the case of Mrs. Poppay. Board members said that officially she is still a member of the Board of Directors, her resignation never having been received by them. At the last board meeting she was elected vice president.

Plan New Building
Mr. Hartzell, a veteran in recreation affairs here, is a former member of the board who has been serving as its secretary. Mr. Scott is president of the Gettysburg Exchange Club and prominent in Boy

Allies Blast Red Factories, Stock Piles In Two Raids

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—U. N. B29 Superforts, B26s and fighter-bombers left Communist factories, stockpiles and troop installations in flames today in two massive raids over Northwest Korea.

Thirty-eight Okinawa-based B29s hurled 350 tons of bombs on Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, last night and early today after civilians had been warned to get out.

More than 100 B29s and fighter-bombers followed with a daylight bombing of a giant cement plant at Osu, about 50 miles south of Pyongyang. Returning pilots estimated they destroyed 63 buildings and damaged 29 others.

Great clouds of cement dust arose at Osu as the planes bombed structures used for making the concrete of Red military installations.

In smaller raids today, the U. S. Marines said their fliers demolished 10 maintenance buildings at a vehicle park 20 miles north of Yonan and 17 barracks-type structures near Namchonjom—both in Northwest Korea.

The U. S. Air Force said its pilots damaged two of five Russian-made jets which tangled with four Sabrejets today near Sinuiju.

Swift U. S. Sabre jets destroyed three Communist MIG15s and damaged two more in high-altitude dogfights over Northwest Korea Wednesday.

Light Ground Action
Ground action was extremely light yesterday and early today.

Meanwhile, thirty U. S. soldiers in a training exercise were engulfed by a wall of water as they crossed a river and today are feared drowned, the Eighth Army announced.

The Army said bodies of only 12 men caught in the flash flood had been recovered.

Boats with grappling hooks swept the unidentified South Korean river for the other 26 missing men of the 45th Infantry Division.

Rain from a typhoon which lashed Okinawa and Korea this week unleashed the crushing normal foot of water in the normally knee-deep river.

The men, part of one platoon, were trapped on a sandbar as they started to ford the river Monday.

Here And There News Collected At Random

"From New York to California
the public schools are in the tightest fix in history," warns John Bainbridge, well-known magazine writer and reporter, in his article, "Save Our Schools," in the September issue of McCall's Magazine, on the newsstands Friday. And, he adds, "the present and impending shortages of classrooms and teachers will, unless vigorously dealt with, result in a major national catastrophe."

As a result of surveying the state of public education across the country for McCall's, Mr. Bainbridge lists these problems which the schools face:

The public schools are being viciously and secretly attacked by a small band of spoilers dedicated to the destruction of public education.

The times being tense . . . sweeping and often absurd charges against the schools receive an easy acceptance.

There are those who foolishly believe that the salvation of the schools demands the wiping out of the educational gains of the past half-century.

The damage already done by the spoilers cannot easily be repaired and there is small hope that their insidious labors will soon diminish.

The article quotes—for the first time—excerpts from the Pasadena Citizens' Survey Committee. (Please Turn to Page 2)

Sunday morning he will bring the morning message interspersing it with appropriate hymns. On Sunday evening he is planning to lead two choral groups and the congregation in a hymn singing festival.

The friends of the community are invited to these services, which will be held in the new church along the Biglerville Road.

30 Yank Soldiers Perish In Flash Flood In Korea

WITH THE U. S. 45TH DIVISION Korea (AP)—Shaken survivors of an American infantry platoon today bemoaned their decision to ford a South Korean river which boiled up unexpectedly and swept 30 buddies to probable death.

"It seems foolish now, but we were all for it," said one of the 11 survivors, Pvt. Daniel O. Sholes, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Forty-one members of the 45th Division Platoon, tired from a day of training last Monday, reached the 12-inch deep, 75-yard wide stream two miles from the nearest bridge, Sholes related.

He said the platoon's lieutenant—one of the victims—asked, "Does anybody want to try crossing here?"

The men favored it, Sholes said, so "carrying our full packs and equipment, we walked out into the river."

Sholes and other survivors said the sudden, frightening wall of water forced the platoon to a shrinking sandbar and that the men finally plunged fully clothed into the torrent seeking safety.

Thirty men were engulfed by the racing water but only 12 bodies so far have been recovered, one 68 miles downstream. Heavy rain from a typhoon caused the disastrous flash flood.

Just before the men leaped from the sandbar, Sgt. Monte Daily, 20, Sargent, Neb.—a survivor—yelled for them to get rid of their weapons. But for many the warning came too late.

NEW OXFORD IS BEFORE PENNA. JUSTICE DEPT.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department today called in the first of 10 Susquehanna River basin municipalities for failure to comply with the clean streams law and heard the same story from all.

Give us more time. We'll be glad to cooperate.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Robert L. Rubendall closeted himself during the morning in conferences with officials from Wyoming, Exeter and the New Oxford Drainage Co. which provides sewage facilities for that Adams County community.

Failed To Meet Order

Similar conferences were scheduled later in the day for Pittston, Forty Fort and Swoyersville and possibly Shickshinny, Middletown, Steelton and Tunkhannock.

The ten municipalities were cited by the Sanitary Water Board for failure to meet an order to prepare plans for sewage treatment facilities.

Their citation increased to 47 the number of municipalities in the Susquehanna basin under fire for failure to comply with the commonwealth's clean streams program.

Find Secret Code Books In Home Of Dismissed General

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP)—Secret code books and "top secret" information on all airfields in Chinese Nationalist territory were reported yesterday to have been found in the home of a dismissed Nationalist general.

The home belonged to Lt. Gen. P. T. Mow, former chief of a Chinese Air Force purchasing commission in Washington. He now is in a Mexico City jail, accused of failing to account for at least 25 million dollars in Nationalist funds.

Nassau County police and Nationalist officials searched the home Tuesday on a search warrant obtained by the Nationalists. Dist. Atty. Frank A. Gulotta impounded the records.

John G. Brody, who has been retained as counsel by the Nationalists in the Mow case, said all of the material was the property of the Nationalist government.

TO RENOVATE
STONE BRIDGE

The Adams County Commissioners Wednesday afternoon gave the go-ahead signal for renovation of one of the oldest bridges in the county—the stone arch structure over the Conowingo between Oxford and Mt. Pleasant Twp., known as the John's Burnt Mill Bridge.

The only stone-arch bridge still under control of the commissioners, the four-arch structure is believed to be upwards of 150 years old. Its design is exactly the same as the former stone arch bridge across Marsh Creek on the Fairfield Road, the commissioners said today.

While there is no record of the construction date of the John's Burnt Mill Bridge, the Fairfield Road structure, torn away a few years ago, was built in 1809. The John's Burnt Mill Bridge is believed to have been constructed by the same masons.

A wing wall and six ice breakers on the bridge have deteriorated, the commissioners said. Charles Albright, East Berlin R. 2, was instructed to make the necessary repairs to the structure.

The commissioners Wednesday appointed Francis Claybaugh as assessor in Mt. Pleasant Twp. to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Raymond E. Gephart. The term will expire December 31, 1953.

Two Germans, in this country for a year's stay and en route Wednesday from Detroit to Philadelphia to attend a church conference, they said, thought that the Pennsylvania Turnpike ended at Breezewood, and that the speed limit of 70 miles an hour on the super highway applied to all Pennsylvania roads.

State police arrested the driver, Oswin Gottschling, on a speeding charge. He was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore. Gottschling left the turnpike at Breezewood and drove the remaining way east to Gettysburg on the Lincoln Highway, not knowing, he said, that he could have continued to Philadelphia at 70 miles an hour on the turnpike.

stopped around the curve just west of Bittinger's.

Dr. Crist asked Chambers if the second train had knowledge that the train ahead was going to stop. Chambers said it did not and it was not necessary that it should because the leading train was obliged to give protection to its rear in case of a stop. He said he learned from Flagman C. R. Viar, Hagerstown, on Train 63-64, that he had flares, torpedoes and a flag in his possession but did not use them. (Viar later testified he did drop one flare or "fusee.")

Tape Recorded Diesel's Speed

Chambers added that Viar was riding the third car from the rear of the freight while regulations require that he be at the end of the train. He said crew members on Train 63-64 had told him the crash occurred a minute after they stopped on the four-degree curve.

The trainmaster said the speed tape record on the diesel revealed it had been traveling 30.5 miles an hour just out of Hanover, 24.6 m.p.h. at Elm, near Hanover; 15 m.p.h. at Bittinger's, then up to 24.6; dropped to 22 a few feet from the collision and at the time of impact was going 19.5 m.p.h. The diesel was pulling four loaded cars and a caboose.

The end of the stopped freight was visible for 350 feet to the east, Chambers said, but estimated the switcher would have required a minimum of 400 feet to stop. Chambers quoted Conductor Walter (on the diesel) as saying he spotted the parked train 150 feet away, shouted a warning to his engineer and jumped as the air brakes went on.

Had Seen Freight Ahead

Chambers quoted Conductor Walter as saying the leading freight had been seen ahead of his train on a straight stretch of more than 6,000 feet before the fatal curve. Walter, only survivor of the three men on the diesel, said his train had been following at a distance of 30 car lengths—estimated at from 1,200 to 1,500 feet. In answer to a question from a juror, Chambers said that the gap could not have met the five-minute interval required by regulations.

The trainmaster added that the rear train should have checked with the dispatcher by telephone before heading west after 6:34 and said it was equally the responsibility of the conductor and engineer to make that check.

Conductor H. J. Anderson of Train 63-64 and veteran of 16 years service on the Western Maryland, was the next witness. He testified he had no orders to pick up his caboose but no switcher was available and he decided to pick it up and "go up to the Berlin Junction 'Y.'" He said he heard the distant sound of the collision just after he had set the caboose handbrake on the Junction "Y." Anderson said he had not seen or heard the train following him but admitted he knew the switcher "would be along soon on its way to Gettysburg."

Calls Flagman "Reliable"

Anderson declared he was relying on a promise made to him by the Hagerstown dispatcher immediately after the 5 a.m. crash that the rear of his train "would be protected." He added he had not been told the switcher had orders to put the caboose on the rear of his train.

The conductor said he had told his flagman of the planned stop and ordered him to the rear of the train. He testified Viar told him after the crash he had dropped a flare but Anderson had not queried him in detail about it. He said Viar was a "reliable flagman" and had given proper protection.

H. V. Davis, the engineer on 63-64, said the crash occurred "just as we stopped." Asked why the accident happened, he answered: "I don't know why unless they were pushing us too close." He quoted Viar as telling him he "didn't have time to get back to the end of the train with a flag." Davis did not know whether any flares had been dropped, said Viar had told him he was riding on the next to last instead of the third car from the end and said he (Davis) had not given Viar a whistle signal to set up rear protection "because there wasn't time."

Blames Other Crew

Conductor Walter, who saved his life by leaping off the diesel seconds before the collision, testified he felt "the other train should have been protected" when asked about the cause of the accident. Walter admitted he had seen the train ahead of him enroute from Hanover but saw no flares or flagman before the crash. Walter said he asked Viar at the scene where he was before the crash and Viar answered he "was coming back."

Walter said he did not expect the train ahead was going to stop but thought it would go on to Gettysburg before changing its caboose. The conductor added his train sounded its whistle at two road crossings before the accident, one only about 600 feet east of the collision point.

Asked if he felt orders had been "fouled up," Walter pointed out it was he that had the orders to pick up the caboose and that Anderson had done so without orders. "We weren't going too fast and had no reason to expect the other train to stop," Walter concluded.

Flagman Writing Reports

Flagman Viar, who has been with the Western Maryland eight years, said he knew his train was to make a stop at Berlin Junction but did not see the train following his freight. Viar explained he had climbed into the next to last car and sat down with pencil and paper to write daily reports enroute west from Hanover. When he felt the train slowing he walked to the end of the car and

Approximately 158 persons attended the Upper Adams County Lions annual family picnic held at Willow Mill Park on Tuesday evening. The dropped a flare between the cars onto the track "from force of habit." It is not customary to drop more than one, he explained.

He said his train was under orders that "protected its rear" and he felt the single flare was not required. "We didn't report in at Elm but went on to Gettysburg with protection afforded to our rear. Walter should have gotten telephone orders before he left Elm."

The two eye-witness accounts of the accident were given by Mrs. Richard Klunk, New Oxford R. D., and her 10-year-old son, Raymond, who live along the tracks just west of the accident scene. They watched the crash from a bridge over the tracks a few hundred feet west of the crash scene.

Boy Saw Flagman Run

Mrs. Klunk said she saw the flagman "running toward the end of the train when the train was about stopped." She estimated he was seven or eight cars from the end when she noticed him first. She could not identify Viar as the man.

Her son said half the train had gone under the bridge before he reached that vantage point but when he first saw the running flagman he was west of the bridge and had reached the third car from the rear when the crash occurred. Both told of seeing the diesel round the curve and crash after Walter's leap.

The first witness was Dr. Wilbur G. Miller, New Oxford, deputy coroner of Adams County, who described the crushing injuries suffered by both men. Chaffin, he said, was nearly disemboweled. Both died instantly.

Walter B. Lane, local photographer, identified 14 pictures he made at the crash scene.

mittee's report summary which reveals that facts were discovered (during the survey) which "effectively negate the charge that the children were being indoctrinated with socialistic or communistic principles or philosophies."

The McCall's article deals in detail with Battle Creek, Michigan, a community whose school situation in many ways illustrates the national pattern.

In 1945, Dr. Virgil M. Rogers currently president of the American Association of School Administrators) was appointed Superintendent of Battle Creek schools, after a nationwide survey, financed by the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, to select the ablest administrator available.

Dr. Rogers, who has successfully fought demands for his resignation made by a small group of citizens in 1951, was first criticized for requesting an increased budget to meet growing enrollment and inflation. Later the schools' curriculum was attacked, then followed distribution in Battle Creek of "Zoll" literature, and charges of subversion. "As is usual," McCall's says, "emotionalism and bitterness have corroded the issues."

The article contains Dr. Rogers' ten-point formula for differentiating between honest and dishonest critical groups.

Mr. Bainbridge points out that the perilous predicament of the public schools cannot be traced to any one cause, and lists the following cities and reasons for their unrest:

Scarsdale, New York—Schools under heavy pressure by charge they have been infiltrated by communism.

Los Angeles, California—Schools have been attacked for teaching about the United Nations.

Ferndale, Michigan—Complaints over schools' testing program, sex education, discipline, among others.

Houston, Texas—Schools disrupted by blanket charges of "creeping socialism."

Sapulpa, Oklahoma; Indianapolis, Indiana; New Haven, Conn.; and others—Trouble has developed over textbooks that certain groups feel do not put sufficient stress on Americanism.

"Save Our Schools" is the first of two articles written by John Bainbridge for McCall's on the subject of public education in America. His second article will appear in October.

INDIANS SWAMP RED SOX; YANKS LOSE; A' WIN

By RALPH ROTHEN
AP Sports Writer

Ever since Luke Easter became a regular on the Cleveland Indians it has been said, "As Easter goes so go the Indians."

His value to the Indians is clearly demonstrated by his performance this year. Big Luke is hot right now and so are the Indians.

Cleveland, with Easter playing a leading role, swamped the Boston Red Sox, 18-8, yesterday and pulled to within a game of the American League's front-running New York Yankees. The Yanks were humiliated, 12-3, by the Chicago White Sox. Philadelphia tripped Detroit, 4-3, in the circuit's only night game. A night game between St. Louis and Washington was rained out.

Phils Tame Bucs
Brooklyn moved seven games ahead of the New York Giants in the National League chase, downing Cincinnati, 6-3. The Giants and Chicago Cubs were rained out. In other games, Philadelphia tamed Pittsburgh, 3-1, and St. Louis beat Boston, 9-2, in a game called in the eighth inning because of rain.

Easter, Ray Boone and Larry Doby were the ringleaders in Cleveland's rout of the Red Sox. Easter batted in six runs on a grand-slam homer and two singles. Boone sent six mates across on a homer and two singles and Doby batted in a pair of runs on his 27th homer and two singles.

Chicago also came up with a big inning to beat the Yanks. The White Sox scored six runs in the third inning to wipe out a 2-1 deficit and that was more than Saul Rogovin needed to hang up his 11th triumph.

Scheib Stars At Bat
Carl Scheib drove home two runs and scored the winning run in the A's triumph over Detroit. Scheib singled home two runs in the seventh to tie the score at 3-3 and then pranced over the plate on one-baggers by Pete Suder and Ferris Fain.

Brooklyn found veteran Ken Raffensberger for 11 hits and all of their runs in less than four innings.

Connie Ryan was the big wheel in Philadelphia's triumph over Pittsburgh. Ryan clouted his 12th homer, walked three times and stole two bases in helping Russ Meyer post his 10th conquest.

Harvey (The Kitten) Haddix turned in a five-hitter in his major league debut for the Cards. Haddix, awaiting discharge from the Army, coasted home after the Cards jumped on Lew Burdette for six runs in the second inning on three doubles, three singles and two walks.

Interstate

By The Associated Press
Hagerstown's season-long dominance of the Interstate League stood in greater jeopardy than at any other point in the 1952 race. With visions of a league pennant dancing before their eyes, Allentown's crashing Cardinals eked out their fourth win in a row last night while Hagerstown dropped its fourth straight.

The Redbirds bunched two of their three hits off York's Perkins to win 1-0 in the tenth inning—their second overtime win against fourth place York in as many days.

Meanwhile Hagerstown fell before third place Lancaster, 5-3. A rejuvenated Wilmington team took its second straight doubleheader in two days with 5-4 and 4-1 wins over Harrisburg.

In the other league fracas, seventh place Sunbury shut out Salisbury, 3-0, on the six-hit pitching of lefthander Tommy Bass, making his league debut.

Two More League Playoffs Tonight

Another large crowd is anticipated tonight when a pair of semi-final games in the Softball League will be staged on the Recreation Park diamond.

In the opener at 7 o'clock the Moose, regular season champs, tangle with the Glenn L. Bream gargamelen. The Bream outfit has a 1-0 lead in the series as the result of a 6-3 win Tuesday.

The fast moving VFW team will meet the Texas Lunch in the second contest. The Vets won 8-1 in the series opener.

Each series is a three-game affair. Winners of the semi-finals will clash in another three-game series for the title.

RYAN CLOUTS TWELFTH HOMER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Connie Ryan led the Philadelphia Phillies to a 3-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday, hitting his 12th homer of the year, stealing two bases and scoring all three runs.

Pirate manager Bill Meyer protested the game after being ejected in the first inning. Meyer claimed interference should have been called on Johnny Wyrostek whose bat was hit by a ball thrown by catcher Joe Garagiola.

Ryan, who had walked and stolen second, took third base on the play with an error being charged to Garagiola.

Rookie Cal Hogue who allowed only five hits was charged with his fifth defeat against one victory.

The win went to Russ Meyer, his 10th compared to 12 defeats.

16 SURVIVORS IN SEATTLE PLAY

SEATTLE (AP)—Sixteen survivors of a play, headed by former Champion Charlie Coe and such strong challengers as Walker Cup player Jimmy McHale, sailor Gene Littler and crooner Don Cherry, head into another double round of match play today in the Men's National Amateur Golf Championship.

Coe, the 1949 champion, and McHale are familiar names in the national classic.

Stranahan Misses Again
Littler and Cherry earned their way into prominence by producing the two most resounding triumphs of the fifth round yesterday afternoon.

Littler, 22-year-old former junior star, with perhaps the most brilliant play thus far in the tournament, defeated the British amateur champion, Harvie Ward Jr., of Tarboro, N. C., 4 and 2.

Cherry, 28, from Garden City, N. Y., well known in the East as a professional singer, made it another year of sorrow for Frank Stranahan, the perennial contender from Toledo.

Cherry, who has played without acclaim in three other nationals, defeated the handsome Ohio strong-boy, 3 and 1.

Stranahan, twice British champion, has never won the American crown.

YANKS BEATING INJURIES, DRAFT

NEW YORK (AP)—If Casey Stengel fails to lead the New York Yankees to their fourth straight American League pennant some old headlines will be dusted off. Some of the experts will write that Stengel will retire if the Yankees miss.

However, Casey will be anything but discouraged. Even if he loses, it is doubted he will retire. He has all the money he wants but loves baseball.

He has done a commendable job, keeping the Yankees in front so long despite adverse conditions.

In the spring both Joe Collins and Billy Martin came up with broken ankles in training. Yogi Berra came up with a bruised thumb and rival players began calling him "jake," an expression athletes use when a player is "dogging it" and refuses to play because of a minor injury. However, Yogi missed the first nine games, five of which the Yankees lost. Yet he is among the league's leading some run makers.

Then there were the calls to the service of Jerry Coleman, who was hitting above .400, Bobby Brown and Tom Morgan. And Ed Lopat has been of little use because of a sore arm. On top of that Collins, whose bat and fielding have been very important, has been suffering from bursitis.

Red Cross Here Will Help 700 Adams Families: Approximately 700 families in Gettysburg and Adams county will benefit through the distribution of 1,400 yards of cotton cloth expected to be allotted to the Adams county chapter of the Red Cross this year, Miss Margaret McMillan has announced.

The committee studied a number of reports relative to the approximate number of families who will require assistance this winter and determined that approximately 700 families will need aid. Upon this basis, it was determined that 1,400 yards of cloth will be required to supply the demands in the county this year. The government allows 20 yards of cloth to each family.

County workers will help make the various pieces of clothing and some of the cloth will be given outright to families who are capable of making their own clothing. Some workers will sew in groups and others will sew at home.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE LIBERATOR

One of the most inspiring and thrilling of great lives is that of the great South American general, known as "The Liberator"—Simon Bolivar. I have read several books of his remarkable life, but recently I read one entitled "The Four Seasons of Manuela" by Victor W. von Hagen. This book tells of that remarkable and amazing woman who was Bolivar's mistress, though far more than this. She was his loyal and unrelenting, champion in liberating South America from the rule of the Spaniards. Also it is one of the most passionate love stories in all history!

Of all the many books written about Bolivar hardly a mention has been made of Manuela, but this new book gives a documented and most fascinating record of her great services to this man who loved to have his name associated with that of George Washington. It was this woman, who at a critical time saved his life. Few books that I have read can compare with this story of a man who sacrificed all he had, even his life, to give his people freedom and liberty.

It was a long struggle. Great glory he early gained, but toward the last of his life there were jealousies and dissensions that threatened to lose all that he had gained. His health failed him. He became discouraged and unhappy over the lack of appreciation that he so richly deserved. He died at Santa Marta, a small island off the coast of Venezuela, after great suffering, but his only thought was that he would die happy if his people would be united and preserve the great victories that he had won. He was even buried in a borrowed gown!

Today Bolivar, the great "Liberator," is the most revered name in all South American history! But his deserved honors came too late for him to enjoy them, as so often has happened in this world where appreciation for great deeds is often neglected. Bolivar gave his wealth, his remarkable talents, and his life to his country. But both he and his "lovable fool" as he termed Manuela, were exiled. Manuela died last at a little village named Palta, off the coast of Peru. As I finish this stirring book I thought of those lines of Gray: "The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Answers." Protected, 1952 by The George Matthew Adams Service

COPY READER
This is the stuff on which the words are penned
And thoughts are gathered from the writer's mind.
The name at the beginning or the end,
And sent abroad for all who seek to find.

The spoken phrases few may chance to hear,
And after hearing may remember not;
But when on copy paper they appear
'Tis possible they'll never be forgot.

I watch the boys at work, from day to day,
Filling with words the sheets of paper white,
And hope that they may some time find the way
A thought or two of lasting worth to write.

SAYS INCREASED PRODUCTION IS NECESSARY FOR MINERS' RAISE

NEW YORK (P)—A spokesman for the hard coal industry says a wage hike is impossible without increased production by the miners.

The statement was made Tuesday by Edward G. Fox, head of an employers' negotiating group and president of the Philadelphia and Reading Iron and Coal Co.

During the first day of contract negotiations between the operators and the United Mine Workers (Ind.), Fox declared:

75,000 Affected
"Under present economic conditions in the industry, any increase in wage rates is unjustifiable without assurance that the industry's mine force will make every effort to increase production."

Earlier in the day, he had said: "The industry is unable to meet any increase (in pay) at this time. It would be impossible."

The negotiations, affecting 75,000 anthracite miners mostly in North-eastern Pennsylvania, continued Wednesday.

Thomas Kennedy, vice-president of the UMW, told newsmen the union will make "suggestions" on wages, hours and the health and welfare fund. The hard coal miners now average $2.25 an hour on a working day of 7½ hours. The employers pay 30 cents a ton into the health and welfare fund.

Management Proposals
Kennedy said "We believe that improvements in wages and collateral matters are indicated."

Here is how Fox outlined the management proposals:

1. A joint program between the anthracite operators and the union to improve production.
2. Simplification of the wage structure to bring about absorption into the regular wage structure of the present per diem payments.
3. Review of the health and welfare fund to find a way to improve its administration while spreading the cost equitably among all anthracite producers.

4. A joint effort to further improve safety conditions in the mines in a spirit of cooperation.
5. A program, jointly endorsed and supported, to employ wherever applicable and desired the maximum use of tools and equipment of mine mechanization.

Too Good Already
A union source, commenting on the employer suggestion for increased production, said production seems to be too good already. He referred to the large stockpiles of anthracite above ground, and said the miners have averaged only three days of work a week for the past several months.

Coal stockpiles will be reduced somewhat during a "memorial period" of no work which UMW President John L. Lewis has declared in the hard and soft coal pits between next Saturday and Sept. 2. The miners will be out on five working days.

The holiday, in honor of men killed in mine accidents, will strengthen the union's bargaining position.

Lewis has notified the employers in both the hard and soft coal industries that contracts with the UMW will expire Sept. 30.

REDS MOVE TO FOOL OUTSIDERS

WASHINGTON (P)—American diplomats announced that Russia's move to abolish the Politburo is aimed at fooling outsiders as well as Russian citizens into believing the Communist party setup is being democratized.

Experts familiar with Soviet affairs viewed the call for a Communist Party Congress—the first in 13 years—and the announcement of a new five-year production plan as a combination of (A) propaganda and (B) Communist party necessity.

The word "Politburo," these officials noted, has become a byword for dictatorship even inside Russia.

The diplomats said, too, that the Moscow announcement shows that Georgi Malenkov ranks as a likely successor to Josef Stalin as the Russian premier.

They pointed to the fact that Malenkov, 50-year-old Politburo member, has been selected to read the main report and said this shows he is firmly entrenched in the Communist hierarchy.

Stalin gave this report personally at the two previous Communist Party Congress gatherings in 1934 and 1939.

TOP JUSTICE DEPT. OFFICIAL DUE AS "TARGET"

WASHINGTON (P)—A top Justice Department official was reported today to be a prime target of House investigators in hearings starting next Tuesday.

Rep. Chelf (D-Ky), chairman of the special judiciary subcommittee investigating the department, declined to identify the official beyond saying he is still in the department.

Most of the top assistants to former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath have resigned or have been given new duties in a department shake-up instituted by McGrath's successor, James P. McGranery.

One of the latest to go was James A. Mullally, 52, long-time lawyer in the department's Criminal Division, who was suspended late yesterday pending an investigation of his "outside activities."

Mullally recently had been assigned to the division's racket unit, which has been correlating reports from special grand juries assigned to racket investigations around the country.

DENY ROUGHING BY MARGARET'S ARMED GUARD

WASHINGTON (P)—The question of whether Margaret Truman's gun-toting bodyguard roughhoused Swedish citizens bounced across the Atlantic today, trailing official denial, comment—and silence.

Swedish newspapers had first serve Tuesday. They reported what they called "tough guy" tactics used by three Secret Service agents accompanying the President's daughter on her European tour.

The Swedish newspaper Expressen said the bodyguards flung aside a photographer who tried to snap Miss Truman's picture at Stockholm's Central Station, blocked a theater entrance until her arrival there and kept newsmen and photographers outside Stockholm's Town Hall while she visited it.

The U. S. Secret Service, also traditionally, arms its agents whenever they are on duty—whether bodyguarding or trailing counterfeits.

Short's Version

At the White House, after conferring with State and Treasury Department officials, the Secret Service is a branch of Treasury, Presidential Press Secretary Joseph Short gave this version of the reported incident at the Stockholm Town Hall:

"One photographer approached one of the agents at City Hall and asked if Miss Truman would permit her picture to be taken. She was looking at some exhibitions, and the agent said she preferred not to be photographed at the time. "The photographer asked if any other photographers were present inside the building and was told there were not.

No Argument

"That ended the incident. It was just a very calm discussion."

The Swedish Foreign Office backed up Short. It said in a statement that the agent who reportedly stopped a photographer had

Lives Eleven Hours After 13-story Fall

MIAMI, Fla. (P)—A man who plunged from the 13th floor of a Miami office building and crashed through the roof of an adjoining two-story structure died Wednesday, more than 11 hours after his spectacular fall.

Charles R. Svoboda, 41, a former employe in the Pacific Building front which he leaped, died at 3:35 a. m. Police said he jumped from a window in a men's toilet, across the street from Miami's downtown postoffice.

BEIRUT, Lebanon, (P)—Foreign Minister Philippe Taclat has announced that Lebanon has approved the request of the United States, Great Britain, and France to raise their diplomatic missions from the rank of legations to embassies. At present, there are no embassies in Lebanon.

simply said: "No pictures, please." U. S. Ambassador Walton Butterworth said virtually the same thing. He cabled the State Department, quoting the social agent in charge of Miss Truman's bodyguard as saying about the City Hall incident:

"There was no discussion, no argument and no weapon was displayed at any time."

The 28-year-old Miss Truman, has left Sweden for Helsinki, Finland.

EXPECT RECORD ENROLLMENT IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's public school enrollment will hit a 12-year high when schools reopen in the next two weeks, the State Public Instruction Department predicted today.

Dr. Carl D. Morneweck, of the department's Child Accounting and Research division, estimated the figure at 1,712,000—some $8,000 more than last year.

Most of the state's 2,513 school districts open doors the day after Labor Day, that's Sept. 2 this year. However, the department has noted a number of districts delayed re-opening in recent years until Wednesday.

Some Open Early

A few rural districts will start classes next week so that the older students will be free earlier in the spring for farm chores.

Total enrollment in Pennsylvania passed the two million mark for the 1941-42 school year. That is the modern record.

"It is important to remember that the total may be changed by the labor market conditions in September," Morneweck added. "Some of the older children may be working rather than going to school."

Will there be enough teachers? That question is unanswered right now, according to Dr. Henry Klonower, director of Teacher Education and Certification.

He said answers now are being received to department queries sent every school district superintendent asking the number of actual vacancies in each system and the number of applicants for positions.

No Teacher Shortage

"We also asked the colleges and universities how many teachers were made available through June and summer graduations," he added.

Klonower asserted that from first reports, he had "reason to believe it will not be necessary to close a single school for lack of teaching personnel although many districts will be hard put to secure qualified instructors."

The department believes the number of schools operating will be slightly under last year in step with the trend toward consolidation and establishment of larger administrative units. Some 1,080 districts are operating under combined status.

SOCIALIST FOE OF WEST GERMAN REARMS DIES

BONN, Germany (AP)—The strongest foe of West German rearmament and alignment with the West, Socialist chief Dr. Kurt Schumacher, died here last night. He was 66.

The fervent leader—second only to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer as a political force in postwar Germany—succumbed to a blood circulation ailment. A cripple with only one arm and one leg, he had been failing ever since his health was ruined in Nazi concentration camps.

Quiet, soft-spoken Socialist Party Vice Chairman Erich Ollenhauer is slated to inherit Schumacher's party leadership. Ollenhauer is expected, however, to keep pushing the Socialists on the same nationalistic course opposed to communism on the one hand and European federalism and common defense on the other.

EDITED NEWSPAPER
The son of a Prussian official, Schumacher studied law and the labor movement and entered politics as editor of a provincial Social Democratic paper. His life was a stubborn battle against chronic ill health and political enemies.

He lost an arm fighting in World War I. The Nazis threw him into a concentration camp in 1933. Ten years of brutalities and poor food permanently weakened his stomach.

Amputation of a leg after he was stricken with thrombosis in 1947 failed to dampen his fervor or will to fight. He kept battling, opposing almost every phase of Allied policy toward the federal republic and trying to halt the Adenauer government's steps toward European federation and defense.

Strike Differences Not "Too Great"

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Common Pleas Court judge believes the differences between the Philadelphia Transportation Co. and the CIO-Transport Workers Union over the proposed layoff of 244 employees "are not great."

Judge John Morgan Davis made the statement in court yesterday as he ordered a temporary injunction to continue in effect to restrain the company from laying off the employees and to keep the union from calling a strike in event of the layoff.

Meanwhile, company and union officials were expected to continue discussions of the matter in the judge's chambers until a solution is reached or the negotiations collapse.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 21-year-old Harrisburg brunet, Miss Lois Fisher, rules today as the beauty queen of the State Bureau of Employment Security.

The new queen and the runner-up, Mary Lee Weir of Johnstown, received trophies Tuesday night from A. J. Caruso, the bureau's executive director.

PEN PALS PART; NO FAREWELLS

DINGLE, Ireland (AP)—Frank Hayostak started back to his Johnstown, Pa., home last night without even a final wave from blue-eyed Breda O'Sullivan, his Irish pen-pal who found his name and address in a bottle.

Breda, in fact, harvested oats on her mother's farm while Frank climbed aboard the bus for Tralee. No one else came to see him off either, not even the disappointed Dingle folk who hoped that a romance would cap the couple's six years of letter writing.

Frank flew to Ireland two weeks ago to meet the young colleen he had known only through letters that started the day she found the bottle with his name and address on the Dingle shore. Frank had thrown the bottle overboard from the troopship on which he was returning from World War II army service in Europe.

A week after his arrival, both flatly denied there was any romance. But one of the local folk said that Frank "looked a very disappointed man, indeed" as he rode away last night in the rear of the bus.

Flip Of Coin Picked Carbondale Mayor

CARBONDALE, Pa. (AP)—The flip of a coin has made Thomas P. Moran the acting mayor of this Northeastern Pennsylvania borough.

The Scranton Tribune says: Mayor Walter J. Bryden died recently after seven months in office. His successor under the borough laws is the director of accounts and finance. In this case it was Moran.

Last January, when Moran was to be sworn into office along with Councilman Peter A. Gillette it was a question of which man would assume the accounts and finance post, which a councilman must manage under borough laws. They decided to flip a coin and Moran won. Gillette is now director of streets and public improvements.

Princess Margaret Is 22; Plans Picnic

BALMORAL, Scotland (AP)—Princess Margaret is 22 today—and like many another British little sister, she's spending her birthday quietly with the family.

The petite princess, one of the gayest leaders of London's smart set until the death of her father, King George VI, earlier this year, donned tweeds and sensible low-heeled shoes to picnic on the Grouse Moors near here.

YOUNG BELLHOP TO BE QUIZZED IN GIRL'S DEATH

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit authorities today awaited New Jersey state police who want to question a young bellhop about the July 26 murder of pretty Mary Louise Dreisbach near Atlantic City.

At the same time, a fingerprint report in connection with the case is expected to be released by state police in Trenton, N. J.

Detroit police said they arrested 23-year-old Robert Aube yesterday and were holding him without charge at the request of Jersey officials.

Have No Link

Local police added they had "nothing definite" to link Aube with the slaying of the 23-year-old stenographer from Hokenauqua, Pa.

Jersey state police said Aube, known as Robert A. Stevens in Atlantic City, quit his job in a Boardwalk hotel soon after the murder and came here.

Aube told Detroit police he came here Aug. 10 and had been working in an automobile factory. He denied any knowledge of Miss Dreisbach's death.

Dascombe and a civilian mechanic, Oliver D. Strauss, were picked up unharmed from the wing of the plane by a passing motor boat.

RED CONGRESS MAY POINT OUT STALIN'S HEIR

WASHINGTON (AP)—A solid clue pointing to Russia's next ruler may emerge from the full dress meeting of the Communist Party congress in Moscow Oct. 5.

And American diplomats will not be surprised if tough, 50-year-old Georgi Malenkov steps up as Josef Stalin's personal choice as next Russian Prime Minister.

Stalin's heir apparent will be the man who is chosen to be chairman of the new Praesidium, to be organized at the meeting to replace the Politburo.

Not Giving Main Speech

The 12-man Politburo, now the top governing body, had no chairman or chief executive. But a Praesidium under the Russian set-up generally does have one.

It is entirely possible that Stalin himself will be designated chairman of the new Praesidium. But, if so, why for the first time since 1925 is he not to give the main address to the congress, the report of the Central Committee?

This is a sort of state of the union speech summing up Communist stewardship of the Soviet Union since the last congress met. In this case it will cover a 13-year period and will be especially important.

Wheelhorses Missing

Malenkov, a Communist party wheel who worked his way up from the ranks like Stalin, is now scheduled to give this report, the most important thing on the agenda.

Furthermore, neither Marshal Beria, head of the Soviet secret police and Deputy Prime Minister Malenkov's main rival, nor Deputy Premier V. M. Molotov is scheduled at this time to play any prominent role in the congress party session. This may be a clue that Molotov is being pushed into the background, since he read the new five-year plan at each of the two previous congress meetings, in 1934 and 1939.

Confers At Kremlin

Red China's Premier Chou En-lai conferred at the Kremlin last night with Stalin—making it evident the generalissimo is keeping in closest touch with the current Chinese-Soviet talks here.

Diplomats regarded the visit, at which top aides of both leaders were present, as more than a courtesy call and predicted it would be the first of a series of such talks while Chou is here as the chief of a delegation seeking stronger ties between Russia and China.

PLAN THRILLS AT GOVERNOR'S DAY ON SUNDAY

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—Air and ground forces will combine to give spectators a thrill at the annual Governor's Day review of the Pennsylvania National Guard here Sunday.

In the air, F-51 Mustang fighters will make strafing runs, according to plans of the State Department of Military Affairs.

And on the ground some 5,400 other guardsmen will march in review before Gov. John S. Fine, commander-in-chief of the guard for the Keystone state.

General To Attend

Also watching the Muir Field review open to the public will be Lt. Gen. Edward N. Brooks, commander of the Continental Air Command, Mitchell Air Force Center, Long Island, N. Y.

Other guests will be Pennsylvania's two members of the U. S. Senate, former Govs. James H. Duff and Edward Martin.

The review is one of the high points of the two-week summer encampment of the state's national guard, which began last Saturday. Ground forces are quartered on the military reservation here while air units are at Spangz Field, Reading. Marching units will include Philadelphia's 11th infantry regimental combat team, the 104th armored cavalry regiment from central and northwestern Pennsylvania and the 12th fighter wing.

The center of a standard baseball is a piece of cork the size of a marble which has been aged for 15 years.

LIBERTY SHIP RAMMED, SUNK; 37 MEN SAVED

DOVER, England (AP)—Two British lifeboats hauled the 37 crewmen of the American Liberty ship Western Farmer from the gale-swept English Channel early today after their freighter, rammed by a Norwegian tanker, split in two and sank.

The lifeboats landed Capt. Gunnar Utvik of Galveston, Tex., and the rest of his crew — some bruised and battered but all safe — at this famous old port of Southeast England and at nearby Ramsgate.

The 11,732-ton tanker Bjorgholm, out of Oslo, came through without serious damage. She stood by until the rescue boats picked up the crew of the ill-fated 7,123-ton Western Farmer, a 9-year-old veteran of World War II.

New Channel Graveyard

The collision occurred last night in a wind-driven rain near the Goodwin Sands — the "channel graveyard" eight miles off the Southeast Coast of England.

The tanker's bow, one survivor related, smashed into the freighter amidships — "right into the radio room." The crash put the American ship's engines and radio out of action, but emergency signals from the tanker brought rescue craft rushing to the stormy scene.

As searchlights from the rescue ships played over the wallowing wreck, the forward part of the stricken ship broke away and the crew abandoned her, some taking to the ship's boats and others going over the side straight into the rescue craft.

Enroute To Bremen

The two big lifeboats, meanwhile had assembled the survivors — Capt. Utvik and 23 others in one that brought them to Ramsgate, and the other 13 in a Dover boat.

The Western Farmer, which sailed under the name Henry Lomb during the war, was on her way to Bremen, Germany, with a load of coal from Norfolk, Va. She was owned by the Western Navigation Co. of New York.

The survivors, soaked and covered with grease and oil, were taken to a local seamen's club and given hot drinks, food and dry clothing.

SEEK CURB ON TRUCK CARGOES OF EXPLOSIVES

HARRISBURG (P)—Atty. Gen. Robert E. Woodside said Wednesday broader rights for truck transportation of explosives would constitute "a menace to the safety and well being" of Pennsylvanians.

Woodside made the statement in a brief on Tuesday to the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington. The brief accompanied similar certificates filed with the commission by six other states and four cities including Pittsburgh.

The briefs urged the ICC to reject applications of a group of trucking firms for certificates granting increased authority to haul explosives. Ten companies seek additional authority to transport explosives on routes which terminate in or pass through Pennsylvania.

Largest Road System
The Pennsylvania brief, also filed in behalf of New Jersey, describes the commonwealth's roads as "the largest state highway system in the world."

It asks aid from the ICC in protecting the roads because "our experience in Pennsylvania has shown that motor vehicle accidents involving trucks carrying high explosives have been extremely costly from the standpoint of loss of human life and damage to property."

The brief cited an explosion of a truck earlier this month at Craig's Patch, near Mahanoy City, which injured six persons, destroyed two homes and damaged 11 other houses.

Joining in the action urging refusal of the applications were New Jersey, Massachusetts, Indiana, West Virginia, Connecticut, Rhode Island, St. Louis, Cleveland and Peoria, Ill.

FARMER BALKS NEW HIGHWAY THRU PROPERTY

READING (P)—The state's plans to build a highway through Charles C. Kline's 35-acre farm near Morgantown has run into a snag. Kline, 60, said he'll not allow construction of the road until satisfactory damages are paid—and until then he'll guard his land with a rifle.

In a letter to R. E. Boyer, district highway engineer, Kline rejected an offer for his property. Work already has started at both ends of the road, a $500,000 bypass of route 122.

The new highway section will divert traffic around the new iron ore mine of the Bethlehem Steel Co. and will pass through Kline's and four adjoining properties.

Call State A Stooze
"Why shouldn't we farmers get the same kind of money for our land as Bethlehem paid out for the properties they bought for the iron ore mine," Kline said.

"In this so-called improvement," the farmer added, "the State is just a stooze for the Bethlehem Steel Co. No one but Bethlehem is going to benefit or profit from this new road."

"You treat a man like they do in Russia. The public is getting a run-around and I'm going to fight this thing to the end."

Kline said his best 16-acre field will be cut in two by the road. His property and others affected are surrounded by Bethlehem-owned property.

A neighbor of Kline's, Russell Grove, 31, who operates a 25-acre farm, said the road will increase the mileage between Morgantown and Reading.

SAY SERGEANT WAS MURDERED NEAR MIDNIGHT

BEDFORD, Pa. (P)—State police said that they have narrowed the time element in the brutal slaying of a Marine sergeant on the Pennsylvania Turnpike to a period shortly after midnight Sunday.

Sgt. Robert K. Wright of Dillon, S. C., was found unconscious just off the Breezewood Interchange after daylight Monday morning. He died eight hours later in a Bedford Hospital.

Police said the marine was savagely beaten on the head with a claw hammer. His auto was found 40 miles away at the Blue Mountain Interchange.

A turnpike employee told police Tuesday he saw the auto parked at the interchange before 1 a. m. (EST.)

Had Visited Girl
Police termed the information the most positive clue they have picked up so far.

Wright, who was serving with a Marine detachment at the Naval Annex in Arlington, Va., had spent the week end in Youngstown, O., visiting Barbara Lutes.

Parents of the 21-year-old girl said she left on Tuesday for a vacation at Atlantic City, N. J., without knowing Wright had been slain.

State police are trying to contact Miss Lutes to see if she can give any information about Wright.

Buenos Aires is the largest Spanish speaking city in the world.

TOWER OF PISA IS EXPECTED TO TUMBLE IN 2100

PISA, Italy (U) — If you want to do what thousands of other Americans have done and be photographed in front of the Leaning Tower of Pisa, do it before 2,100 A.D.

Why? Because although the Tower has shown no dangerous new tilt lately, normal deterioration is expected to bring it tumbling down in about 150 years unless new restoration work is done.

However, for the present it is as safe as the Tower has been in years. Reports had circulated in the Italian press, after the recent North Italy floods, that the Tower had tilted further to a dangerous point.

No Immediate Danger

"The old and solid tower is in no immediate danger of collapsing," said Dr. I. Nocchioli, surveyor who daily checks the delicate seismographs and inclinometers inside the tower.

Some years ago, an extensive survey was made of the ground on which the Tower is built. The conclusion was that there is no danger that the Tower, whose foundations were laid in 1174, would collapse for 150 years.

The Tower leaned dangerously in 1175, when its construction had reached 33 feet from the ground. The ground gave way on its southern side for about 5 inches in depth. Architect Bonanno tried to correct the inclination until the fourth order of arches, but he did not succeed and gave up the construction.

Add 3 Floors

Sixty years later the construction was resumed by Wilhelm of Innsbruck, who added another three orders of arches (floors) to the Tower. Like his predecessor he gave up.

In 1550, Tommaso Pisano completed the bell Tower, straightening it a little with respect of the rest of the building. The completed building was 181.2 feet on the northern side and 177.5 feet on the southern side. Its present inclination is about one tenth of its height. Originally it was almost three feet less.

The first scientific studies on the inclination were made in 1817 by the English professors Grey and Taylor. France's Prof. Fleury conducted further studies towards the middle of the last century.

In the same period Italian architect Della Gerardesca dug out the basement of the Tower, which had been filled in by floods.

Concrete Injections

Studies on how to consolidate the ground around the Tower were conducted in this century by Prof. Girometti and completed in 1932 by large cement and concrete-injections.

A complete network of tunnels was dug. In the holes almost one ton of liquid cement was poured to reinforce the Tower foundations.

During the war, the U.S. 8th Army faced the Germans across the Arno River at Pisa for weeks. Several shells exploded near the Tower, although Allied soldiers carefully avoided shooting at it even when the Germans used it for an observation post.

As a result of the explosions, a slight tilt of seven-tenths of a millimeter was recorded after the war.

VANCOUVER, Canada (U) — A stock broker here likes to stress caution on his clients. Tom Boden says chances of finding an oil field yielding a million barrels are about 43 to 1 and displays a sign saying "There are 16,500 dry holes in the United States."

Old Guardhouse Is "Facility" Now

DAYTON, O. (U) — An Air Force man who gets slapped in the guardhouse at Wright-Patterson Air Force base these days finds a "new deal" awaiting him. It's not even a guardhouse anymore but a "confinement facility."

trainees," continue their regular duties under the eye of unarmed "supervisors." The trainees get interviewed to find out what their trouble is. Often this turns out to be a family problem or dissatisfaction with their job in the service.

Retrainees also attend classes, work on construction projects and participate in a recreation program. It's all part of a new policy of the Air Force to restore self-respect to airmen who have gotten into trouble.

PORT SUDAN, (U) — Port Sudan's primitive sanitation facilities will be converted into a modern water-borne system under a program that is scheduled to last five years.

Edison Records Feature Concert

NEW YORK (U) — A recent noon-day concert in Manhattan's Bryant Park of oldtime Edison cylinders celebrated the 75th anniversary of the day when Edison got the ideas that led to the phonograph.

The cylinders were played on a

years ago. The horn, concealed in a cabinet, gave out music that was picked up by microphone and transmitted to 200 listeners in the park. The program was sponsored by the New York Public Library and a savings bank.

Hob-nobbing a tually means touching glasses together, when drinking.

Reds Pass Buck On Meat Shortage

HONG KONG (U) — The Peiping Peoples Daily reports a shortage of beef and mutton has caused unrest among Moslems in Red China's capital.

The official Communist Party organ said an investigation placed the blame on the Chinese Nationalists plus a desire by farmers to keep livestock for breeding.

"Before the liberation and under the cruel exploitation of the Nationalists the farmers were forced to sell cattle in large numbers to eke out a living," so the newspaper said.

60-Year Old American Freed From German, Russian Prison Camps After Serving 7 Years

By THOMAS A. REEDY
BERLIN (AP)—A 60-year-old American camera manufacturer trapped in Germany by World War II today of seven years spent in Russian zone prisons, constantly hungry and despairing.

Charles Noble, of Detroit, Mich., said in an interview he was finally released by the East Zone on July 4 and shipped to West Berlin where he now is awaiting approval from Washington to return to his home.

"It was more than July 4 to me," the chunky, ruddy-faced man declared. "It was really and truly Independence Day."

Born in Germany, Noble emigrated to the U. S. and became an American in 1920. In 1938 he returned to Germany to open a camera factory in Dresden, bringing his wife and two sons, George and John, with him.

Detained By War
Noble said he had planned to get the business going and return to Detroit after a year or two but was stopped by the war. The Nazi regime refused to permit him to leave, he said. He told this sequence of events after that:

The Russians, arriving in Dresden in May, 1945, treated him well for about six weeks. He was sent on one trip to the American zone to get some optical equipment and on his return the Soviets used that as an excuse to charge him with illegal entry for the purpose of stealing cameras from his own factory.

Mrs. Noble and his son, George, were released in January, 1946. Noble and his other son, John, were imprisoned in Dresden, later in the notorious ex-Nazi camp at Buchenwald, and finally in the most ill-famed Communist camp now established at Waldheim.

Refused A Trial
Noble said his repeated demands for at least a trial were refused by the German captors because they said they were not authorized to try an American.

"They told me the Russians had turned me over to them and therefore they could neither try me nor release me," he said bitterly.

Finally this spring, Noble said, the East German regime organized a trial for him at Leipzig, charged him with the old illegal entry complaint and also with having "supported the Nazi regime" by engaging in private enterprise during its tenure.

"I was not a Nazi," he said. "I chose East Germany as a natural place to manufacture cameras. Everyone knows the German camera is good. Had I been in the cosmetic business, I might have set up in France. That wouldn't have made me a Frenchman."

Is Convicted
The Leipzig court found him guilty, he said, sentenced him to exactly the length of time he had been held since the end of the war, then sent him to West Berlin.

Noble's wife remained in Berlin through the years, awaiting his release. His son George is now in Detroit.

He said his former factory at Dresden, now run by the Communists as a state enterprise, is manufacturing eight to ten thousand cameras monthly. He has little hope of ever regaining any part of his investment.

Noble maintained his health

Hershey To Have Apple Butter Queen

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—A new queen will make her debut to society here on Saturday.

She'll be the Apple Butter queen and will reign over the fourth annual celebration of Pennsylvania Dutch Days at Hershey Park.

The three-day event begins tomorrow, reaching a climax on Saturday when the Apple Butter Queen will be selected from a large field of entrants.

More than 100,000 persons are expected to attend the celebration dedicated to depicting the part the Pennsylvania Dutch have played in molding the American way of life.

On the program for the first time is a market hog show and sale to be conducted by the Dauphin County Future Farmers of America and 4-H clubs.

Army Of Machines At Penn State Parley

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—A motorized army of machines and appliances used in grassland farming went through agricultural maneuvers here Wednesday.

Upwards of 10,000 persons gathered on grounds of the Pennsylvania State College farms to observe demonstrations carried out in connection with a big grassland field day.

Overhead they watched airplane dusting and on the ground they saw harvesters, tractors, balers, plows and bulldozers show the latest modes in renovating pastures, shredding silage and making hay.

The field day was staged in conjunction with the sixth annual International Grasslands Congress which has brought some 2,000 grassland scientists here from more than 50 nations.

Give Up Search For Missing Guard Pilot

READING, Pa. (AP)—The search for Lt. Darrell James Geiser, 30, whose plane failed to return from gunnery practice Monday, was called off by the 112th Fighter Wing Tuesday night.

Geiser was a member of the 146th Fighter Squadron of Pittsburgh. The unit was assigned to the 112th Fighter Wing of the Pennsylvania and Maryland Air National Guard now holding two-week summer training at Spaatz Field here.

A spokesman for the ANG wing said planes from his group and the New Jersey Air-Sea Rescue Center at Atlantic City searched for the missing aircraft over a 50-mile radius Tuesday but found no traces of the plane, an F51 Mustang fighter.

BELGIAN WEDS OLYMPIC STAR

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Hungarian officials disclosed Wednesday that an Olympics - fostered romance had bridged the Iron Curtain.

The marriage of Belgian newspaperman Pierre Gerard and Hungarian swimmer Eva Novak, who brought three medals home from Helsinki, was revealed here.

The groom was identified as the editor of Les Sports, published in Brussels.

The announcement of the nuptials did not tell where or when the couple met, but said that Gerard came back to Budapest with the Hungarian Olympic team. Since he was a foreigner, the couple had to ask Hungary's government for permission to marry.

That, said friends, was granted promptly. Pierre, 38, and Eva, 22, were wed Aug. 11 and returned Monday from a brief honeymoon on Lake Balaton.

Swimming associates said the bride, who is studying medicine, intends to complete her studies. The groom, they added, plans to return to his newspaper work in Belgium but expects to visit his wife every month.

Eva, her friends said, wants to keep her Hungarian citizenship

76 New Cases Of Polio In Pa.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Health Department reported 76 new cases of infantile paralysis during the past week but emphasized Wednesday that conditions are little worse than in 1950, a comparable year.

The seven-day total, officials said, is one more than for the same period two years ago, although they rated 1950 as a "relatively high" year.

Dr. William D. Schrack Jr., of the Department's Bureau of Health Conservation, holds out little hope that the present rate will drop sharply in the immediate future.

"In the past three years the third week of August always has been the worst and there is no reason to believe 1952 will be different," Schrack said, adding: "It has looked all along that this year would approximate 1950."

The total number of polio cases two years ago was 1,460. This has been topped only twice in the department's records.

Last year the total was only 871.

and hopes to represent her country in the 1956 Olympics.

She already is the world's record holder in the 200-meter breast stroke race for women, though she only came second in the event at Helsinki.

MARINE FLIER TWICE ESCAPES TRAGIC DEATH

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—Marine flier's wives get used to such things.

"That would make a good movie," was the comment of Mrs. Dorothy Galer when informed of the almost miraculous escape of her husband, Col. Robert E. Galer, from a crackup in Korea.

Galer went over the side of his flak-crippled Corsair fighter, but his foot caught in a cockpit strap. He dangled head down, managed to climb back into the plane, freed his boot, then dove again.

This time the tail of the plane hit him, breaking several ribs.

Escapes Burning Death

His parachute opened 150 feet from the ground and he landed within 10 feet of the burning plane amid exploding ammunition. He hid from enemy search parties. Later he was picked up by a helicopter, and it, too, was hit by antiaircraft fire three times before Galer was landed on the deck of an American vessel.

"It wasn't the first time for Bob," said Mrs. Galer last night. "He was shot down four times during the last war."

When he destroyed eleven Japanese planes over Guadalcanal, the Marine flier was awarded the Medal of Honor.

What intrigued Mrs. Galer most was not the flier's latest escape, but other information she received yesterday. Galer is coming home early next month.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Private funeral services were held Wednesday for David T. Berlitzheimer, 82, who died Monday at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital.

Born in Cincinnati, Berlitzheimer came to Philadelphia in 1871. For 45 years he was head of the Standard Hosiery Mills and the Fairmount Hosiery Mills here before he retired ten years ago.

4-year-old Girl Dies Of Paralysis

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A four-year-old Centre County girl died at Williamsport Hospital of infantile paralysis Tuesday night.

The victim was Shirley Confer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Confer, of Monument. She had been admitted to the Way Memorial Isolation Unit at the hospital on Monday.

Two other polio cases, admitted this week were reported in good condition. They are Carol Confer, 14, of Orviston, Centre County, and a distant relative of the dead girl, and Caroline Groce, 16, of Lock Haven.

PASTOR DIES OF HEART ATTACK

KEYSTONE HEIGHTS, Pa. (AP)—The Rev. J. Frank Norris, Baptist pastor from Ft. Worth, Tex., who believed that a preacher "ought to stir up the devil" died Wednesday.

He was a tall, white-haired man who strode through many a stormy moment—including a murder trial where he pled self defense and was acquitted.

He was 74. Death came from a heart attack.

Mr. Norris had flown here Tuesday to attend a Fundamental Baptist youth camp. Keystone Heights is some 40 miles south of Jacksonville. He appeared in good health at camp meetings on Tuesday but died about 2 a. m., shortly after he was stricken.

He was a leader in the organization of the Fundamental Baptist Churches which established its world-wide headquarters in Chicago in 1937, with 3,000 churches affiliated.

IRANIANS AGAIN ATTACK YANKS

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—In a renewal of assaults on U. S. military personnel, six Americans including two lieutenant colonels, were attacked Wednesday by Red-inspired Iranians as the Americans drove through Tehran's streets.

One of them—Master Sgt. Paul Goodwin of the U. S. Embassy staff was struck on the arm by a cabbage. Army officials said he was the only American hit.

An official U. S. Army mission report said the first attack occurred at 8:20 a. m. local time, when Lt. Col. William B. Stelvenmuller left the offices of the U. S. Information Service to go to the Iranian War Ministry. When his car paused in traffic a large rock crashed through the rear window.

Ten minutes later a sedan carrying Lt. Col. Ben Legare and Maj. Milan Elliott was hit by two bricks near Istanbul St. where an American sergeant was stoned yesterday.

At about the same time, Sgt. Goodwin, driving along Stalin St. near the Soviet Embassy, was struck by the cabbage.

The final incident occurred when Master Sgt. Maxie Page and Pvt. Stephen I. Langlie, riding in an Army truck, were stoned by three persons standing on Stalin St.

Canadian Court To Be "Supreme"

OTTAWA, Canada (AP)—Late this year or early next year, the Supreme Court of Canada will become "Supreme" in fact as well as in name.

By that time, the judicial committee of the Privy Council in London will probably have disposed of all the remaining appeals from Canada. The court of Ottawa will then be Canada's court of last resort.

Appeals to the judicial committee in London have been abolished by Canadian law.

STRIKE ISSUE BEFORE COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Transportation Corp. and the CIO-Transport Workers Union, involved in a dispute over the proposed layoff of 244 workers, went back into court Wednesday to battle another round in their dispute.

Both sides were scheduled to present arguments on a temporary injunction handed down by Judge Morgan Davis last Friday restraining the union from calling its members off their jobs in protest of the proposed layoff. At the same time the injunctions stopped the PTC from laying off the workers.

After the company announced the proposed layoff, the union ordered its men off their jobs last Sunday midnight. But the company sought the injunction. In the mean-

A FRANK EXPLANATION

The cost of medicine has risen sharply in recent years. This rise may be attributed to two factors. The first is the economic condition which has caused all commodities to advance in price. The second is the use of new and more beneficial drugs which are highly complex in nature and consequently more costly to manufacture and process. However, many drugs now sell for less than 10 percent of their introductory cost. Penicillin, for example, was reduced in price 93 percent during its first four years of commercial sale. Although modern medicines are more expensive than the simple compounds used a few decades ago, the benefits of shortened periods of illness and reduced suffering far exceed in value the increase in cost.

NEW STARLET IS MOST CASUAL IN SWISS FILM

ZURICH (AP) — Ten-year-old Elisabeth Sigmund probably is the most casual, unconcerned and recalcitrant movie star outside Hollywood.

The Swiss film company, Praesens, looked all over eastern Switzerland to find a girl for the leading part in "Heidi," Swiss movie version of Johanna Spyri's world-famous children's book. The company's scouts picked Elisabeth out of a scramble of boys and girls in a schoolyard and she is now "Heidi," somewhat against her better judgment.

"Heidi" is the story of a little

Swiss girl, who lived in the mountains with her grandfather and helped her best friend back to health on a diet of goat's milk and cheese. The book was first published in 1880. It has been translated into many languages and is widely read all over the world.

Elisabeth was not much impressed by the movie scouts. When she heard that shooting the movie scenery in the Alps would take most of three summer months, she asked: "What about my summer vacation?"

Preferred Vacation
When they told her she would have to give up her usual vacation in the mountains and also part of the following school term, Elisabeth said she would rather go on with her usual schedule of school and vacation. Her parents did not help much.

"We don't care whether she becomes a movie star or not," her father, Robert Sigmund, said later. "But the movie people were nice, her teacher said it was all right, so we said yes."

The movie people brought Elisabeth around by telling her she would have many opportunities to romp with the goats which have a large part in the picture. Elisabeth likes animals.

Elisabeth lives in Kempthal, a small village about 12 miles from Zurich. Her father is an accountant. He said he couldn't quite imagine his daughter as a star in a movie. She likes to play with a box of bricks rather than with dolls and enjoys her model railway.

"Regular Tomboy"
"She's a regular tomboy," the father said. "She learned to swim without anybody telling her and when she was eight, I saw her one day swinging on a single bar and jumping off with a half somersault."

The parents will chaperon the children in the cast during the shooting in the mountains. Elisabeth will get a bank account when the picture is finished, but probably not a very big one. Praesens is having financial difficulties and "Heidi" is counted on to help the company back on its feet.

Elisabeth, who doesn't want to be a star and doesn't take too kindly to a schedule of rising at dawn, taking a long jeep ride to location and submitting to hours of photographing, is becoming a little more philosophical about the whole thing. After one particularly bad day, she said: "The movie people were still nicer about it than my teacher would have been."

OPIUM-GROWING LEGALIZED

TEL AVIV (AP) — Opium and hashish for medical and scientific purposes are to be grown in Israel now that preliminary experiments at the Weizmann Institute at Rehovot have proved successful. The local cultivation of these drugs, hitherto imported, needed a special amendment to the Habit-forming Drugs Act.

THREE KILLED IN COLLISION

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A head-on automobile crash killed two men and a girl and seriously injured a third man Wednesday on Route 51 at Perryopolis, 10 miles north of Uniontown.

Elleen Joann Smith, 18, of Dunbar RD 1, died at Uniontown Hospital of neck and skull fractures and other injuries.

The two men were dead when other motorists reached the scene of the accident.

One of them, Richard Fowler, about 20, of Smithfield RD, was operating the car in which Miss Smith was riding.

The other was William Kennedy of Uniontown RD, one of two men occupying the second car involved in the crash. They were returning from work at Banning No. 3 coal mine when the mishap occurred. The other man, Edward Lyons, 33, married, of Box 114, Lemond Furnace, near Uniontown, was in Uniontown Hospital with multiple lacerations of the face, a fractured right knee and possible internal injuries. His condition was reported satisfactory.

Catastrophe Toll On Rise In Nation

NEW YORK (AP) — About 900 lives were lost in the nation in the first six months of this year in catastrophes — accidents killing five or more persons, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. statisticians report.

This was a 25 per cent increase above the toll in the same period of 1951. Tornadoes were the most important item, accounting for 229 deaths in six Mississippi valley states.

However, aviation was safer in the first half of this year in spite of two crashes at Elizabeth, N.J., which took 63 lives and one near Los Angeles which claimed 29

Britain Gets German Assets In Singapore

SINGAPORE (AP) — The Singapore government has realized $1,100,000 from the sale of German assets in the colony. Claims against German assets during the period of realization only totalled $26,400.

The proceeds are being sent to Britain in accordance with agreements made between the Allied powers at Potsdam whereby claims in the colonies will revert to Britain as reparations.

PREFERS PAINT TO HOUSEWORK

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Celia Von Wert paints hotel hallways and rooms for a living and she finds it more to her liking than housework.

This mother of seven will tell you, too, that she knows of no other woman who has such a job. But, she adds, her work easily could be done by other women "if they just carried a little willing with them."

Mrs. Von Wert, 49, at present is painting, plastering and papering the interior of the Earle Hotel.

She prefers her job over any other, and she has tried many. And to debunk notions that her painting chores require strength beyond the call of womanly muscles, she exclaimed:

"It's not hard to me. I believe lives. In the 1951 period there were seven crashes with a death toll of 159.

I can do any type of work there is and I prefer this. It's much better than housework."

Works Alone

She stands 5 feet 8 and weighs 183. She chooses to work alone, and can paint a room and a bath in a day. She stands by her sex when it comes to what she wears on the job. She prefers a regular dress.

"I still wash clothes the old-fashioned way on a washboard, and it's easier to wash dresses than it is coversalls." She wears an apron over her dress and tucks her short hair under a cap.

Mrs. Von Wert, a divorcee, resides in Louisville with two daughters. She has four other daughters who are married and a son, Pfc. John R. Sorrells, now in Korea.

rea. A native of Butler County, Ky., she did farm work for 2 years before moving to Louisville. Since then she has worked as a waitress in night clubs and taverns, in a distillery.

PREPARING FOR ANNUAL HORSE SHOW SEPT. 21

Plans for the fourth annual horse show sponsored by the Emmitsburg Lions Club to be held September 21 are well underway. Robert Dougherty, general chairman of the committee, in charge, said today.

Approximately 60 entries from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, District of Columbia, West Virginia and Virginia are expected for the annual event held to raise funds for the Emmitsburg Lions Club Children's Welfare Fund.

Much of the money in the Children's Welfare Fund goes to purchase glasses and provide other aids, such as operations, for children with bad sight, following the traditional work of the Lions clubs internationally. Members of the club said today. In addition, money from the fund goes to aid children who are underprivileged as discovered through the teachers and nurses in the schools.

To Offer Tickets Soon
The club plans to hold the usual events for trotters, pony classes, western types, roaster classes, hunter-jumpers, etc., following Maryland Horseshow Association rules. Members of the Maryland Horseshow Association have been assisting the Lions in the conduct of the show since it was established.

Bleachers for the expected crowd will be secured again this year from the city of Frederick, which loans its bleachers to nearby organizations holding events for charity. Members of the Lions Club will travel to Frederick to secure the stands shortly before the day of the event.

Sale of tickets for ringside parking will begin in about a week. Chairman Dougherty said. Usually approximately 100 cars secure ringside locations through use of the tickets.

Prizes For Ponies
Trophies will be awarded the pony classes, and cash prizes will be awarded, with $20 as the first prize, in each of the horse classes.

Tents will be erected for the refreshment stands and a platform will be constructed for the judges and clerks and loudspeakers. Ralph McDonnell will be in charge of the loudspeakers and music for the event.

Snow fences loaned by the state of Maryland will be used for the horseshow ring itself.

Emmit Gardens Site
The entire program will be held at Emmit Gardens, new development at Emmitsburg located along the Baltimore road.

Members of the committee are

Grange Helps Build Home For Victims Of Fire

Members of the Emmitsburg Grange have nearly completed the new home for Franklin B. Brawner and his family.

From 12 to 15 members of the grange, headed by Edgar G. Emerick, master of the Grange, have been working every evening, when weather has permitted, to complete the concrete block home for the Brawner family of five along the Waynesboro Road, near the Pennsylvania-Maryland line.

The Grange took over construction of the house when the previous home of the Brawner family along the St. Anthony's-Motter's Station Road was destroyed by flames late last month and the family was left homeless and without clothes. The Emmitsburg Community Fund, set up several years ago for just such an emergency, provided clothing, with the Grange assisting. Then the Grange members volunteered their services to complete the new home for the Brawners, the foundation of which had been constructed prior to the fire at the other home.

At the present time the structure is just about ready for construction of the roof.

Members of the Grange credit Emerick, an ex-Marine who moved to the Emmitsburg area several years ago to take up farming there, with providing most of the "push" in setting up the organization of volunteer workers for the construction of the Brawner home.

LIONS TO PICNIC
Members of the Emmitsburg Lions Club, their wives and children will attend the annual family picnic to be held by the club Tuesday afternoon and evening at the Gettysburg Country Club. Dr. Luther D. Beagle is chairman of the committee in charge of the event.

FIREMEN BUY 500 FEET OF NEW FIRE HOSE

The Emmitsburg Fire Company has purchased 500 feet of 2½-inch hose to bring its total supply of hose up to 2,000 feet. President Herbert Roger said today.

Approximately 1,500 feet of the hose owned by the company is now 2½-inch and the other 500 feet is 1½-inch hose.

Members of the company recently won $50 in prizes for competition in parades, securing $25 for the second best appearing fire company at the Frederick County Firemen's Association parade at Myersville and $25 for the same award at Thurmont.

Have 90 Members
The company held its annual outing indoors last Tuesday when rain prevented plans to hold the session out of doors. The feed was conducted at the fire hall. Approximately 50 attended.

New bylaws adopted by the company limit the number of members to 90 and at the present time the company has a full membership. President Roger said. Present plans of the company call for the new bylaws, which were adopted at the most recent meeting of the organization, to be printed so that each member may have a copy.

Members of the bylaws committee, William Rowe, Guy Baker Jr., Herbert Roger and John Hollinger, visited fire companies at Fairfield, Taneytown and Thurmont to study their bylaws before writing the new list for the Emmitsburg company.

Members present at the meeting were William E. (Johnny) Knox, president; Michael Tate, Donald W. McSherry, Adam Myers and George D. March, treasurer. Also present were Secretary Hartzell and Rogers Herr, acting director.

The board discussed the erection of a new building at the Recreation Park for the storage of equipment, and President Knox named Directors McSherry and Myers as a building committee to investigate the cost and ways and means. One estimate placed the probable cost at $2,000 for a 30 by 40 foot structure. The building will replace the present old shed at the Recreation Park.

All five members of the board will serve as a planning committee. Knox, Teeter and Wolff were the former members.

The board also voted to pay the who will leave soon for Scotland to begin studies under a Rotary Foundation Fellowship.

Mr. Simpson is a graduate of Western Maryland College, class of 1951, and for the past year was instructor in music at the Westminster High School. His fellowship, which was awarded under a foundation set up by Rotary International five years ago, entitles him to a year's schooling at the University of Edinburgh plus all travel, housing and incidental costs. He will also travel within a 300 mile radius helping to establish international good will in accord with the purpose of the Rotary's Fellowship-grant program.

While in Scotland he will concentrate on studies in the fields of theology and sacred music. He will continue his studies at Princeton University on his return and then enter the ministry of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Mr. Simpson was very active during his former school years, as an athlete and class president in high school, as a thespian and musician in college, and as a choir director and children's camp director during his out-of-school hours.

Gettysburg School Board $1,000 in reimbursement for funds advanced. The board voted to grant the Metropolitan Edison Co. a ten-foot right of way across property of the Recreation Association along the old railroad south of W. Middle St. for a new electric line to the McMillan property on W. Confederate Ave.

Mr. Herr reported that both playgrounds, at the Recreation Park and the High St. School, have been closed for the season. He said that the uniforms of the junior and senior baseball teams will be collected, cleaned and stored in the recreation office at the high school instead of in the shed at the Recreation Park. Directors discussed touch football and basketball programs, but took no action.

Mr. Herr's work as acting director will terminate September 1. He notified the board Wednesday night that he will be unable to continue after that date. No director has been engaged to succeed him.

A Bit Of History About Your Own Adams County

This is the 26th in a series of historical talks given over Radio Station WGET by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, Adeline Sager professor of history at Gettysburg College, on some of the outstanding events and interesting episodes in the development of Adams County.

It was on January 6, 1869, that York Springs was organized as a borough, thus becoming the fourth borough to be organized in Adams County. York Springs was set off from Huntingdon Twp. by an act of incorporation in 1868, the following January, when J. W. Pearson was elected the first burgess, and Messrs. J. E. Spangler, J. W. Reitzell, T. L. Worley, H. J. Myers and T. E. Gardner were elected councilmen. It is interesting to note that most of these names are still well-known in and about York Springs. In the census of 1870 the population of the borough was given as 356; in 1950 it was shown as 413.

It was first laid out as a town in or about 1800, and was for some years known as Petersburg, taking this name from Peter Fleck, whose log cabin was the first dwelling place on the site and who also conducted the first store in the community, a liquor store. It has been said, but probably a general store, in which, as was customary in those days, liquor was one of the commodities sold. The name Petersburg was used for the town until it was incorporated, as described above, as "York Springs Borough."

Two Petersburgs
It would seem that there must have been some confusion for some years at least between Petersburg, which later became York Springs, and the Petersburg which later became Littlestown. The latter place was laid out by Peter Little, and was known as "Peter Little's Town," and then as Petersburg. This was used officially as late as 1808, at least, to build a turnpike from Gettysburg to the Petersburg which is now Littlestown. For whatever reason there was, the Petersburg in the northern part of the county remained so named until its incorporation. With the introduction of an official name, and for reasons of postal service, the name Petersburg had to be given up, in view of the existence of a Petersburg in Huntingdon County.

The name, as well as the early popular notice of the town, came out of the location about a mile and a half from the town of the York Sulphur Springs. These were discovered in 1790 by people exploring the Jacob Fickes tract. They discovered deer licks leading toward the place and ultimately came upon the springs. The waters were analyzed by a Mr. Heterick and Dr. James Hall, who visited the springs for that purpose, and who highly recommended their medicinal properties, particularly for their "efficacy in cases of debilitated constitutions" as their report set forth.

Burned Out In 1905
One account says that a Mr. McCosh erected buildings to establish a health resort. Another account says that buildings were erected by Robert Long and Joseph Worley. In any case, the grounds were laid out, the buildings were built, and the resort came to have great success. In 1868 Pennington and Baggs of Baltimore purchased the place and named Arnold Gardner as manager. In the years immediately following, the springs were at the height of their popularity as a health resort. Fire destroyed the 100-room structure which remained in 1905.

Favorably affected by the proximity of so well known a resort as Sulphur Springs, the nearby town benefited and prospered. It was also soon on a main highway when the Hanover-Carlisle turnpike was built in 1810.

When the time came for the incorporation of the town, and the name Petersburg had to be given up, what better name could be taken than that suggested by the nearby popular resort? Of course, the town was not at the sulphur springs, and so that was dropped and York Springs carried the significance very well. Yet there came to be later recognition of the propriety of the name when it was discovered that there were springs of good clear cool water in all sections of the town, a total of 44 in all. At one time there were eight different bridges along the main street to pass over the eight streams flowing from the springs in the southwestern part of the town.

8 Bridges In Town
To add to the convenience, which provided a spring or a stream from a spring in each backyard, the line of springs were all about an equal distance from the street.

Also in keeping with the idea of convenience, the water from the springs in the lower end of the town flowed into Bermudian Creek and those in the upper end flowed into Latimore Creek.

In 1811 the road northward from Gettysburg through the site of the new town of Petersburg was improved. This improvement was done on a line of road laid out and used many years before. The improvement of 1811 created what was known for many years as the "State" road. This put Petersburg at the crossing of two main roads, the one just described and the Hanover-Carlisle, or "Cross Keys" road. The result was that Petersburg became a center of importance, greater than its population would suggest.

Industrial Growth
Especially between 1835 and 1850 there was in industrial development of some significance. In the days before mass production, each community had to supply much of what it needed, and a town was the natural point of concentration of such shops and mills, with a large area of countryside sharing the benefits. In the 1835-50 period in Petersburg, from one end of the town to the other, wagon makers, blacksmiths, cabinet makers, shoemakers, wheelwrights, tanners, carpenters, coopers, tailors, hat-makers, and other craftsmen found work and made a living. It was a progressive community.

One of the evidences of that spirit was the attention given to education. A schoolhouse was there even before the town was platted, but in 1826 Jacob Gardner and Thomas Stephens donated a lot for a building suited to school church or general meeting purposes, and the same year a building was built and named the "Petersburg Academy." In 1847 the Female Seminary of York Springs was established by Miss C. J. Reynolds, and in 1856 the union, or graded school building was erected. Over this union school J. Howard Wert presided as principal for the school year 1860-61. He thus became well acquainted with the community.

Social Life
Writing in 1905, he probably over-idealized the rural beauty of town and countryside, and its peaceful spirit of contentment and happiness. Since it was only a few years later that the town became a borough, it will be useful for our purpose of thinking of the incorporation of York Springs borough 83 years ago to read some of what he wrote in recollection 45 years afterward.

He mentions the fine residences and the numerous commercial buildings, as well as the industrial establishments, and the several hotels and eating places which marked this town as more active and prosperous than most small towns of 300 inhabitants. But it is concerning the social life that he speaks at length. He says:

"A winter in those days passed enjoyably enough at York Springs: spellings, singings, debates, at every schoolhouse. When the snow was solid on the roads, a straw ride every night with a packed sled-load of humanity to Round Hill, Hampton, where not? Were they worth facing the nipping air? You bet. No lovelier girls ever lived than those that adorned York Springs five and forty years ago. And how about the elders, the staid business men, did they have their enjoyments too? Certainly. Each week some representative citizens would drive to Gettysburg or York or Carlisle and come back at night with a fairy tale that next week work would commence on the 'York Springs Railroad,' and go on with a rush. The 'Pennsylvania,' the 'Reading,' the 'Cumberland Valley,' the Ahls, and about everybody else that has ever been in the transportation line in North America have been credited with the building of that road. I had hoped to ride on it to revisit the scenes of many but I am beginning to be harassed with doubts."

Efforts had been made indeed to build a railroad, but they never were realized and York Springs had to be content to meet the train, after some years, at Gardner Station on the G. and H. R. R. However, York Springs was not ultimately to be at disadvantage, since in the last 30 years it has been served by one of the main

BAIL WOMAN FOR STEALING

MEDIA, Pa. (P) — Mrs. Thelma Orr, assistant cashier and longtime employee of the Prospect Park State Bank, is free in $1,500 bail today pending a further hearing on charges of embezzlement and fraudulent conversion.

A bank examiner said the shortage may total approximately $38,400.

The 45-year-old woman, an employee of the bank since its organization in 1928, is highly regarded in her community and a regular attendant at the Prospect Park highways of the commonwealth, and the lack of railroad facilities is at last of no significance.

York Springs is back to the busy, active days of road travel, even as it was in the early years of its prosperous history.

Baptist Church.

Lived Conservatively
Friends said Mrs. Orr and her husband, George, an employee of the Baldwin-Lima Hamilton Co., have always had simple tastes and lived conservatively in the suburban community. They have no children.

George W. McKeag, a Philadelphia attorney and president of the bank, said the shortage was discovered in a regular check by state bank examiners. McKeag said all employees are bonded and the insurance will more than cover the loss.

Mrs. Orr will have a further hearing Aug. 28 before Justice of the Peace A. Randall Mathews.

While weeds are not so numerous in summer, neglect of cultivation will allow so many to grow that your garden may be seriously handicapped. Shallow cultivation after every rain, or irrigation, will kill the sprouts which may have started from weed seeds remaining in the soil.

PENNSY WILL ADOPT NATIONAL GOP PLATFORM

HARRISBURG (P)—In contrast to the Democrats, Pennsylvania Republicans don't plan a statewide platform for the 1952 campaign. Elaborating on the subject Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, told a newsman: "We don't need a state platform. We don't have a gubernatorial campaign this year. All we'll do is adopt the national platform that was approved by the Republican National Convention." He said the Republican State Committee will ratify the national platform at its Philadelphia meeting Sept. 4.

REAL REASONS FOR RED CONFAB IS DARK SECRET

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, (P)—Because the Communists always want a fairly small, rigidly disciplined organization, not everyone in Russia is a member of the party. Out of a population of more than 200 million people, probably not more than 10 million are permitted to belong. The number may be smaller. Before he's admitted, a would-be member is screened. Party members must vouch for him. And after he's in his work and loyalty to the party are watched and examined. But the Russian Communists, who set the style for Communists everywhere, protest they have a really democratic setup. Theoretically, all party members are expected to argue sincerely on any issue the party is trying to decide. But, once the decision is made by majority vote, they must obey the party's will absolutely. Actually, the decisions are made at the top by Stalin and his hand-picked lieutenants who form the Politburo, which runs the party. Since the party runs Russia, the Politburo runs the whole show. But if the Politburo just kept on doing this indefinitely from within the Kremlin walls, without even pretending to let the party members think they have a say, it couldn't keep up the democratic fiction very long. So Stalin and his friends decided

GOP CHEERED BY EISENHOWER BOISE SPEECH

By The Associated Press
Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's first frankly political speech, calling for a middle of the road policy and blasting at centralization of power in Washington, drew cheers today from Republicans.

The GOP presidential nominee outlined his views before an enthusiastic crowd of about 20,000 in Boise, Idaho, late yesterday and then flew to Kansas City for a conference today with GOP leaders from seven Midwestern states. His flight from Boise to Kansas City was delayed by bad weather and engine trouble—a minor fire when exhaust gasses from an engine of his plane ignited. Eisenhower, departing from his prepared address, told the Boise audience that the paths of the extreme left and the far right both lead to tyranny—and that the Truman administration is travelling left. He promised a change. And he said Washington has so much power now "the government does everything but come in and wash the dishes for the housewife."

Some of the GOP plaudits he received today: Sen. Mundt of South Dakota—"A sound sense of direction for the coming campaign." Sen. Hickenlooper of Iowa—"Extremely sound."

Sen. Bennett of Utah—Westerners, particularly, will approve the speech because "we don't want the government to turn us into reservation Indians."

Gov. Adlai Stevenson today worked on tomorrow's headlines—the speeches he will make on a hard-hitting Western tour expected to open Sept. 5 in Denver.

Although the Democratic presidential candidate rested as much as possible on this, his last full day of vacation in Wisconsin's north woods, he scheduled a news conference and worked on the addresses he hopes will win western votes.

His plans call for a swing through California and the Pacific Northwest next month—the beginning of the heralded whistle-stop campaign drive. Ten or twelve addresses are on tap.

Stevenson told reporters yesterday he feels "very comfortable" about his chances of beating Eisenhower. And he went on to outline part of his strategy: He hopes to mute the Republican battery of "time for a change" with promises that a Democratic victory would bring a change in faces and policies. He would deal "ruthlessly" with corruption in government, and head off future wrongdoing before it happens by naming incorruptible men to top jobs.

Stevenson's opening campaign speech will be made on Labor Day but his running mate, Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, got off to a running start by making his yesterday.

Suspected Burglar Found Dead In Car

SOMERSET, Pa. (P)—A 34-year-old resident of Berkeley Springs, W. Va., who was sought for questioning by Maryland authorities, has been found dead in his parked auto on Route 30, ten miles north-east of Somerset. State police said the body of Elmer E. Wertman was discovered yesterday. A rubber hose from the exhaust pipe led into the machine. Coroner C. T. Saylor issued a verdict of suicide.

State police at Hagerstown, Md., said an order had been issued to bring Wertman in for questioning about the breaking and entering of an outdoor theater near Hancock, Md. Wertman, employed by a Berkeley Springs dairy, had been missing two days. "Novel" comes from an Italian word meaning tale.

FARMERS RESIST RED TAX
HONG KONG (P)—One press dispatch to an independent newspaper says 400 farmers have been arrested in South China for refusing to pay summer grain taxes. The communists blame the famine conditions on the weather. Press accounts say farmers were refusing to pay the grain taxes because they would not have enough rice left over to carry them through the year.
